

116

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Number of Which Positions Required

DEPARTMENT OF STATE A/CDC/MB

- REVIEWED by m gifford DATE 6/10/88
1. Air surveillance of ~~sites~~ and ~~sites~~ during dismantling.
- ( EXCISE ( DECLASSIFY in PART DENY ( Non-responsive info.
 FOIA or PA exemptions _____
- by UN or US? TS authority to ( CLASSIFY as _____ OADR
 ( DOWNGRADE TS to ( S or ( C. OADR
- if by UN, what standards are to be applied?
2. Need, if any, for ground observation or inspection during dismantling (excluding port inspections).
3. Arrangements at ports in Cuba or from ships ~~coming~~ ports for
- (a) Monitoring for future Soviet arm shipments, and
  - (b) The out shipment of dismantled weapons.
- Role of Red Cross - how to staff the Red Cross, their organisational set-up, the number of people of whom they would be composed.
- ~~Procedures to be followed in such monitoring.~~
- ~~The possibility of a treikasser or a quadripartite arrangement involving the US, UK, USSR, and possibly Cuba.~~
4. Definition of offensive weapons.
- do we include Russian technicians?

03115107030

87-0092114 M ~~copy~~

5. Spelling

CLASSIFIED

-- making out US guarantees not to invade.

-- banning of subversive activities by Cuba in rest of Latin America; is this to be a part of the deal?

-- what about guarantees by other Latin American countries?

6. Duration of inspection and verification arrangements,

-- how much beyond the dismantling period do you want the monitoring to continue?

7. US position on further suspension of blockade and surveillance beyond Wednesday should U Thant or some of his party decide to remain in Cuba.

Note: John MacNaughton, the General Counsel of the Department of Defense, is working on most of the above items.
The principal State Department item is no. 5--the spelling of "guarantees".

031AISSN7030